Minutes

- No action items or new Jira tickets
- Jira workflow
  - CC added a way to close tickets from the Fix Verified state
  - Working on a dashboard a'la ODL's
- Gerrit
  - Docs repo is working and so far workflow seems to work OK
  - No gating on the docs repo yet
  - Pono would like to delete all repos except docs.
    - Will email dev@ & tsc@ to confirm things are OK to scrap
- Repo move
  - Alex has no update yet; unsure whether Carlo is back from PTO yet
- Update on Zuul
  - Optimising right now
  - Zuul plugged into existing Conrail gerrit still
  - Still working fine, gradually improving
  - Already a bit faster than the legacy Zuul
  - Working on adding more tests
    - Replace manual tests...?
    - Currently sufficient coverage, but they're manually run from jenkins
    - Just need to include them in the CI, but right now they take up to 6 hours
      - Working on fixing that
    - Are some gaps in tests, but aren't showstoppers
      - Will address once all the existing tests are moved to the new Zuul
  - possible to have gaps documented so the rest of the community can look at it?
    - AT&T has tests to give, possible to accept help?
    - alex: too early as of now, given that builds aren't finalized
    - we need docs so we can show interested parties that we're making progress/ building out
    - alex: still experimental setup for zuul + juniper gerrit, so tough to write a finalized doc
    - vmb: something is better than nothing
    - Testing and CI/CD initial doc 😊
- Other items?
  - Casey holding off on further Jira workflow changes until he hears from Sukhdev
  - Docs landed their first real patch in Gerrit yesterday (progress!)

Action items

- Daniel Pono Takamori ping Carlo on list about repo move
- Daniel Pono Takamori email lists about deleting all non-docs repos in gerrit.tf.io
- Alex Levine Some kind of documentation for tests
